NARRATIVE:

Mack Turnage is an active gang member with an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 21. His convictions include assault with a deadly weapon, possession of a firearm by a felon, terrorist threats, multiple cases of possession of controlled substances for sale, multiple cases of transporting controlled substances, disturbing the peace and failing to report. He has served multiple incarcerations, the longest being a 4 year term for assault with a deadly weapon by firearm. Turnage was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on October 27, 2012. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in December 2014 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Turnage qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for possession of a firearm by a felon is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history, gang member status and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
